

Treatment of trusts on divorce in Switzerland and international enforcement issues

Zürich - Tuesday 6 November 2012 at 8.15am

Geneva - Wednesday 7 November 2012 at 8.15am

Given the Swiss Supreme Court decision in Rybolovlev the question of how the Swiss court will divide assets on divorce has come to the fore, where no election of separate property has been made.

Our keynote speakers Dr Debora Gabriel of Baer & Karrer and David Wallace Wilson of Schellenberg Wittmer will speak on the subject in Zürich and Geneva respectively. Mark Harper, a Family partner of Withers<sup>LLP</sup> will provide an update on how the English courts treat trusts on divorce. Dawn Goodman, Head of Contentious Trust Group at Withers<sup>LLP</sup> will focus on questions of enforcement and how orders made by the Swiss courts may be enforced in offshore jurisdictions.

We hope you will be able to attend at what promises to be an interesting and informative briefing.

Breakfast
8.15am	registration and breakfast
8.30am - 9.30am	programme followed by Q & A

Venues

Zürich

Withers<sup>LLP</sup>, Utoquai 43, 8008 Zürich

Geneva

Withers<sup>LLP</sup>, 63 rue du Rhône, 1204 Geneva (entrance at 11 rue Pierre Fatio)

If you would like to attend please reply to events@withersworldwide.com stating 'treatment of trusts' in the title and stating the city of your choice. Alternatively please call either our Zürich office t: + 41 (0)44 488 8888 or Geneva office t: +41 (0)22 593 7777.

withers<sup>LLP</sup>

www.withersworldwide.com